

I present to you all my poem called 'NOW'.

NOW is all I have
And it'll always be.

Yesterday is gone
Like a mist in the Sun.

Tomorrow may never come,
As it's a thought in mind.

NOW is all you have
And it'll always be.

Receive it with a smile
Or it will be gone forever.

For Free, for Life
The Universe has given;
And for this very reason
It's called PRESENT.
